Italian Art

If you plan to be in Washington, DC soon, don't miss this spectacular exhibition, Raphael and His Circle, at the National Gallery of Art, through June 14, 2020, West Building, Ground Floor Galleries.

Raphael (1483–1520) was one of the greatest artistic figures working in the Western classical tradition. In celebration of the 500th anniversary of his death, the Gallery presents 25 prints and drawings in an intimate installation. The works will illustrate how the combination of artistic traditions, wide range, and immediate influence of Raphael's art shaped the standard of aesthetic excellence for later artists, connoisseurs, and scholars.

Dante Symposium

On the occasion of the 699th anniversary of the death of Dante Alighieri, the Italian Heritage and Culture Committee of New York, Inc. (IHCC-NY, Inc.), together with the Società Dante Alighieri di NYC, Inc., will celebrate the genius of the great medieval poet and philosopher on March 24 and 25, 2020.

On the evening of March 24, 2020 the John D. Calandra Italian American Institute, New York will host a symposium on Dante; and on March 25, 2020 excerpts from the Divina Commedia (Divine Comedy) will be presented at the Dante statue in Dante Park, in front of Lincoln Center at 63rd Street and Columbus Ave at 3 PM. The events are being planned with the support of the Consulate General of Italy in New York.
